MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

Industry Structure and Developments

Production of tea in South India has been slightly lower than last year. South Indian orthodox tea prices have been quite strong during the year under review. Well-made orthodox tea is expected to command a premium price during the current year.

Opportunities and threats

Your Company has scaled up production of high value teas- both organic and conventional-with better focus on high value grades and introduction of new buyers in export and domestic markets.

Increase in labour and other costs continues to impact the results.

Performance

The total quantity of tea manufactured during the year under review was 33,94,965 kgs as against 34,11,886 kgs during the previous year. Your Company has recorded a sale of 37,07,341 kgs as against 34,87,144 kgs during the previous year. The total exports during the year were 18,91,839 kgs as against 16,50,415 kgs during the previous year.

Income from commercial building during the financial year 2022-23 generated a revenue of Rs.567.54 lakhs as against the previous year's revenue of Rs.558.24 lakhs.

Outlook

As there has been a delay in summer showers in the current year, the crop prospects are slightly lower than 2022-23. However, with the Company's focus on enhancing production of high-quality teas, strict cost control and mechanization measures, the outlook appears good.

Risk and Concerns

Your Company is dependent on weather conditions for production of green leaf, which is a major risk factor for the business. The market demand and potential competition in both domestic and international markets have significant impact on the results. Prevailing government regulations with reference to labour and operations also continue to have an impact on operations.

Internal Control Systems and their adequacy

Your Company has adequate internal control systems in place which are further strengthened by an internal audit function carried out by an external audit firm. With the statutory auditors operating at the apex level, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, these systems are adequate for the size and nature of the Company's business.

Financial Performance

Revenue from operations achieved during the year was Rs. 83.65 crores as against Rs.75.65 crores in the previous year. Profit before tax for the year was Rs.14.92 crores as against Rs.12.88 crores during the previous year. The performance of the Company improved due to better sales price realization during the year under review.

Labour Relations

The labour relations in the estates during the year were cordial. The estate managements continue to implement various measures relating to safety and welfare of employees beyond what is stipulated by prevailing laws and regulations. The total number of permanent employees on the rolls of the Company as on 31st March 2023 was 1194.

Key financial ratios

Key financial ratios are given under Note 31 of the attached financial statements.

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's Annual Report but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

- Our Opinion on the Financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.
- In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.
- If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, changes in equity and Cash flows of the Company in accordance with the IND AS and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit, we also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures in the financial statements made by the management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We described these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

- (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and
- (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2023, based on the criteria for internal control over financial reporting established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

All other repairs and maintenance costs are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

- (b) Biological Assets

Bearer Plants

Biological Assets which are held to bear agricultural produce are classified as bearer plants. The Company recognises tea bushes in the estates as bearer plants which are carried at cost of acquisition less accumulated depreciation and any recognised impairment losses. flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.8 Foreign Currency translation

i) Functional and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupee, the national currency of India, which is the functional currency of the Company.

ii) Transactions and balances

Initial Recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing on the date of transaction.

As at the reporting date, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are restated at the closing exchange rates. Exchange differences arising out of actual payment/realisation and from the year end restatement are recognized in the statement of profit and Loss.

Forward contracts

Cash and cash equivalents consist of all cash balances including deposits with banks with original maturities of three months or less.

2.11 Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recognised initially at the transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost less provision for impairment loss, if any.

2.12 Investments and other financial assets

i) Classification

The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories :

- a) Those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income or through profit or loss), and

THE UNITED NILGIRI TEA ESTATES COMPANY LIMITED

Notes to the Financial Statements as at and for the year ended 31st March 2023

- b) those measured at amortized cost.

The classification depends on the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flow.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For Investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. The Company reclassifies debt instruments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes. For investments in equity instruments the Company has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investments at fair value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVOCI). The Company transfers amounts from FVOCI equity instruments to retained earnings on de-recognition of the relevant equity instruments.

ii) Measurement

Initial recognition :

The Company measures a financial asset (in the case of a financial asset not carried at a fair value through profit or loss) at its fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Subsequent measurement :

a. Equity Instruments

The Company subsequently measures all investments in equity (except that in the associates) at fair value and has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income with no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss.

Investments in associates are measured at cost less provision for impairment.

b. Debt Instruments

Company's investments in Mutual Funds (debt funds) are measured at Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL). A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVTPL and is not part of a hedging relationship is recognized in profit or loss and presented in the statement of profit and loss in the period in which it arises.

iii) Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortized cost. Impairment is considered when there is significant increase in credit risk. Note 34 details how the Company determines whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Company applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind As 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected credit losses to be recognized from initial recognition of the receivables.

iv) De-recognition of financial assets

A financial asset is de-recognised only when :

- a) The Company's contractual right to the cash flow expires or

Notes to the Financial Statements as at and for the year ended 31st March 2023

2.12 Investments and other financial assets — (Contd.)

- b) The Company has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset.

2.13 Revenue recognition

- (i) Revenue from Contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers (export tea sales) is recognised when the Company satisfies performance obligation by transferring promised goods to customers. Performance obligations are satisfied at the point of time when the customer obtains controls of the asset. Revenue from private tea sales is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership in the goods are transferred to customers and recovery of the consideration is probable. Revenue from sale of tea at auction is recognised on receipt of sale notes from the brokers.

Revenue is measured at transaction price which is the consideration received or receivable and is net of returns, allowances, rebates and Goods and Services Tax.

- (ii) Export benefits are accounted for based on eligibility and when there is no uncertainty in receiving them.
- (iii) The Company recognises the License fee as per Leave and License agreements with the lessees in respect of its let-out property as revenue on a straight line basis over the lease term.
- (iv) Interest income from debt instruments is recognized using the effective interest rate method.
- (v) Dividends are recognized in the statement of profit and loss only when the right to receive payment is established.

2.14 Leases

As a Lessee

Leases are recognized as a right-of-use asset with a corresponding lease liability at the date on which the leased asset is available for use by the Company as a lessee except for payments associated with short term leases (lease term of 12 months or less) and low value leases, which are recognized on a straight-line basis as an expense in the profit or loss.

The Company's lease arrangements are all short term in nature and accordingly the lease rentals are recognised as an expense in the profit or loss on a straight line basis.

As a Lessor

Lease income (Licence fees) from the lease arrangements where the Company is a lessor is recognised as income on a straight line basis over the lease term unless the license fees is structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the expected inflationary cost increases in which event such increases are recognised in the year in which such benefits accrue. The related leased assets are included in the balance sheet based on their nature.

2.15 Government grant

Government grants are recognised at fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attached conditions will be complied with.

Government grants relating to income are recognised in the statement of profit and loss over the periods in which the related costs, for which the grants are intended to compensate, are recognised as expenses and presented within other income.

Government grants relating to purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in other non-current / current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets and presented within other income.

2.16 Employee benefits / Obligations

(i) Short term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries including non monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees rendered their related service are recognised in respect of employees' services upto to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the Balance Sheet.

The Company recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses. The Company recognises bonus provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

(ii) Post employment obligations

The Company has the following post employment obligations / plans :

- a) Defined benefit plans such as gratuity for its eligible employees; and
- b) Defined contribution plans such as provident fund and superannuation.

(a) Gratuity

The liability or asset recognised in the Balance Sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plan is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by Actuaries using the Projected Unit Credit method.

Actuarial gains or losses are recognized in other comprehensive income. Further, the profit or loss does not include an expected return on plan assets. Instead net interest cost recognized in profit or loss is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets.

Re-measurement gains or losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in Other Comprehensive Income (net of tax). They are included in retained earnings in the statement of changes in equity and in the balance sheet.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

(b) Provident Fund

This is a defined contribution plan, and contributions made to the Fund as per the rules of the Company are charged to profit or loss. The Company has no further obligations for future provident fund benefits other than its monthly contributions.

2.16 Employee benefits / Obligations — (Contd.)

(c) Superannuation Fund

This is a defined contribution plan. The Company contributes towards superannuation fund administered by the Trustees and managed by Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC). The Company has no further obligations for future superannuation benefits other than its monthly contributions and recognises such contributions as expense in the year incurred.

(iii) Other long term employee benefit obligation

The liabilities for earned leave are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render their related service. They are, therefore, measured at the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees upto the end of the reporting period. The present value is calculated based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligations. Re-measurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

2.17 Taxes on Income

Taxes on Income comprise current tax and deferred tax.

The current tax expense for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income computed at the applicable income tax rate and is recognised in the statement of profit and loss. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only if it is possible that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Current and deferred tax is recognised in statement of profit and loss, except to the extent that relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

2.18 Provisions and contingencies

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Contingencies

Wherever there is a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the entity or a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because (a) it is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation ; or (b) the amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability are recognised as contingent liability. Show Cause notices are not considered as contingent liabilities unless converted into demand.

2.19 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

2.20 Premium from Fair Trade International (FLO)

Sale of tea under "Fair Trade International (FLO) charter" offers a certain premium besides "minimum price" for the grade.

Fair Trade premium is recognised as part of revenue from operations and the premium transferred to the registered joint body as required by FLO Charters is treated as staff welfare expenses.

2.21 Segment Reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM").

2.22 Dividend to Shareholders

Final dividend distributed to equity shareholders is recognised in the period in which it is approved by the members of the Company in the Annual General Meeting. Interim dividend is recognised when approved by the Board of Directors at the Board meeting. Dividend distributed (including interim dividend) is recognised in the Statement of changes in Equity.

2.23 Recent Pronouncements which have become effective April 1, 2023

On March 31, 2023, the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) amended the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2023. The rules predominantly amended Ind AS 12, Income Taxes and Ind AS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements. The other amendments to Ind AS are primarily in the nature of clarifications.

These amendments are not expected to have material impact on the Company in the current or future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transactions.

4.3 Estimation of Fair Value
The best evidence of fair value is current prices in an active market for similar properties. Since investment properties leased out by the Company are cancellable leases, the market rates for sale / purchase of such premises are representative of fair values. Company's investment properties are at a location where active market is available for similar kind of properties. The market approach is being followed for ascertaining the fair value of the investment properties and hence fair value is ascertained on the basis of market rates prevailing for similar properties in those locations determined by an independent registered valuer. Consequently this is classified as a Level 2 valuation.

Note 22. Employee benefit obligations (Contd.)

(iv) Risk exposure

Through its defined benefit plans, the Company is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Asset volatility

The present value of the defined benefit plan obligation is calculated using a discount rate determined by reference to Government of India bond rate. If the return on plan asset is lower than this rate, then it will create a plan deficit.

Changes in bond yields

A decrease in bond yields will increase plan liabilities, although this will be partly offset by increase in the value of the plan holdings.

(v) The weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 7 years (2022 – 11.63 years).

Note 23. The Company was permitted in an earlier year to retain excess holding of 333.67 acres of vacant land contiguous to the planted area in the tea garden but due to rocky terrain, the land could not be cultivated as stipulated by Government and eviction proceedings relating to the aforesaid piece of land had been stayed by the Supreme Court of India. In its final order dated 7th August 2013, the Supreme Court has directed the Land Board to review the case afresh.

Hierarchy

Level 1: Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices. This includes listed equity instruments that have quoted price. The fair value of all equity instruments which are traded in the stock exchanges is determined using the closing price as at the reporting period.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, traded bonds, over-the counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3. This is the case for unlisted equity securities, contingent consideration and indemnification asset included in level 3.

(b) Valuation processes

The finance department of the Company includes a team that performs the valuations of financial assets and liabilities required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair values. This team reports directly to the board of directors. Discussions of valuation processes and results are held between the board of directors and the finance department biannually which is in accordance with the Company's policy.

(c) Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost

The carrying amounts of trade receivables, trade payables, cash and cash equivalents, other financial assets and other financial liabilities(current) are considered to be the same as their fair values, due to their short-term nature and categorized as Level 3 hierarchy..

(d) Valuation techniques

- (i) Quoted equity instruments are valued using quoted prices.
- (ii) Open ended Mutual funds are valued at NAV/s declared.
- (iii) The fair value of non current financial liabilities is determined using discounted cash flow analysis.

Note 34. Financial Risk Management (Contd.)

(A) Credit Risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, financial assets measured at amortised cost and credit exposures to customers including outstanding receivables, advances given to vendors.

(i) Credit risk management

Credit risk on cash and cash equivalents is limited as the Company generally invests in deposits with Nationalised / Scheduled Commercial banks. Investments in equity are made only in AAA rated instruments. The Board of Directors periodically reviews the investment portfolio of the Company.

Credit risk with respect to domestic and export trade receivables is managed by the Company through setting up credit limits for customers and also periodically reviewing their credit worthiness.

The Company considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk the Company compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information.

Based on the assessment made by the Company, credit risk increases significantly since the initial recognition if the financial assets are realised after three months from the due date.

A default on a financial asset occurs when the counterparty fails to make contractual payments within six months from the due date. This definition of default is determined by considering the business environment in which the entity operates and other macro-economic factors.

(ii) Provision for expected credit losses

The Company provides for loss allowance based on 12 month expected credit loss except for trade receivables. Trade receivables consist of large number of customers spread across diverse geographical areas. Ongoing credit evaluation is performed on the financial condition of accounts receivables. The Company has adopted a policy of only dealing with credit worthy counterparties, where appropriate, as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from default.

In determining the allowances or credit losses of trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance of trade receivables taking into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information.

Year ended March 31, 2023:

(a) Expected credit loss for trade receivables under simplified approach:

(C) Market risk

(i) Foreign currency exposure

The Company is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from foreign currency transactions with respect to USD, EURO and GBP on account of sale of tea. Foreign exchange risk arises from recognised assets denominated in a currency that is not the Company's functional currency (Rs). The risk is measured through a forecast of foreign currency cash flows that would arise due to the underlying assets held. The objective of the hedges is to minimise the volatility of the INR cash flows arising on account of the underlying assets.

The Company has not taken options, futures or any other derivative instruments other than foreign exchange forward contracts to manage the foreign currency risk. The strategy followed by the Company is tracking the foreign currency exchange rates.

The Company's exposure to foreign currency risk at the end of the reporting period expressed is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
Trade Receivables
USD {3,35,945 (March 31, 2022: 6,45,308)}	27,620	48,822
EURO {Nil (March 31, 2022: 1,400)}	—	118
GBP {Nil (March 31, 2022 : 15,670)}	—	1,560
Total	27,620	50,500

The sensitivity of profit or loss to changes in the exchange rates arises mainly from foreign currency denominated financial instruments.

Note 34. Financial Risk Management (Contd.)

(C) Market Risk (Contd.)

The following table details Company's sensitivity to a 10% increase and decrease in the exchange rate. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their transition at the period end for 10% change in foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates an increase in profit or equity where the INR strengthens 10% against the relevant currency. For a 10% weakening of the INR against the relevant currency, there would be a comparable impact on the profit or equity, and the balance would be negative.

	Impact on Profit after tax
	March 31, 2023	March 31, 2022
USD	2,762	4,882
EURO	—	12
GBP	—	156

(ii) Price risk

- (a) Exposure: The Company has invested in equity instruments and the exposure is equity securities price risk from investments held by the Company and classified in the balance sheet as FVOCI.
- (b) Sensitivity: An increase in the price risk by 100 basis points would increase the impact in the other comprehensive income by Rs.561/- as on March 31, 2023 and Rs. 470/- as on March 31, 2022. A corresponding reduction in the other comprehensive income would be noted upon decreasing the market index levels.
