For the past 11 years, every application built, solution provided or innovation made, is greeted not only by a round of applause but also with the cold stare of a How Else.

Two words that epitomize the Geodesic ethos, which is built on the strong belief that while a How will only get you answers, unending possibilities is what follows a How Else.

Possibilities, that when explored, introduce you to solutions that are innovative, effective, robust and sustainable. Something that each of our clients - from state governments, NGOs, leading financial institutions to telecom operators - would vouch for.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

From the beginning, we at Geodesic have believed in having a rational and a rigid standard for measuring what we have accomplished – or have not. We measure management performance against our strategy, product innovation, fiscal strength, stakeholder value and thought leadership.

After achieving a sustained growth rate year on year during the last nine years, it is unusual for us to write about decline in our growth during fiscal 2010. And we do not wish to cite recession, global meltdown or a difficult environment as excuses but are planning on including counter measures to handle such downturns. Going forward, we are confident of handling these complex eventualities and meltdowns.

The global recession has had a major impact on the financial performance of companies around the world in virtually every industry in fiscal 2010, and Geodesic was no exception. Thanks to our fiscal strength and prudent approach to investment, a strong pipeline of new products and services that retained all attributes and functionality of our existing products but added few others that addressed needs and desires unleashed by new trends in the same category, and a renewed focus on productivity, we responded to the uncertain economic environment with speed and agility to ensure we cover lost ground. With revenues of ₹ 637 crore in 2010 as against ₹ 653 crore in 2009, we clocked earnings of ₹ 224 crore in fiscal 2010 as against ₹ 264 crore in fiscal 2009.

The world has seen five quarters of global recession and the recession has not changed our fundamental approach to our business. Technology innovation has always been the foundation of Geodesic's growth and success and we have invested substantial amounts of money to stay ahead of the technology curve in our space. We have been focusing on four simple goals:

- maintaining Geodesic's strong financial position
- developing and acquiring new and varied earning streams
- nurturing and expanding our team who have over the years delivered great results
- augmenting our products and services to give our business units the competitive edge

The value of our approach can also be seen in the unprecedented pipeline of innovative products that reached significant development milestones during fiscal 2010 and are scheduled to be released in fiscal 2011.

Geodesic took advantage of the economic downturn and reoriented its products and services to sustain and grow revenues and earnings. These reoriented products and services allowed us to cater to newer segments. Our marketing and technology teams worked tirelessly to reorient ADePT, GeoAmida, Continuum and Mundu to address newer segments and needs. ADePT for example - has been deployed as an online anti-piracy tool for movies and television. This reoriented product helps Geodesic target a new segment and increase our revenues. The online anti-piracy tool allows production houses and studios to increase theatre footfall and revenues. GeoAmida is being reoriented as a Micro ATM for the purpose of rural and in-store banking, and as a mobile authentication, validation and data processing terminal. Mundu was reoriented as a communication stack and an entertainment stack with loads of content added as part of our initiative to provide content-based communication and entertainment services. This will allow Geodesic to build more partnerships with telecom network operators, Internet service providers and handset vendors across countries. We are confident that these reoriented products will get us substantial revenues and earnings during the next financial year.

The economic downturn presented Geodesic with a huge opportunity of hiring brilliant people across the board and we grabbed the opportunity with both hands. Geodesic added 75+ people during fiscal 2010 and our attrition rate remained well under 5% again (an achievement we are proud of for the past six years). Geodesic also took this opportunity to go all out and make adequate capital expenditure to ensure we have adequate bandwidth to support our mobile services across the communication and entertainment stacks.

We let our subsidiaries operate on their own to ensure empowerment and to retain their management's owner-oriented attitude. We plan to operate as an aggregation of separately-managed small and medium- sized businesses, most of whose decision-making occurs at the operating level. We would rather suffer visible costs maybe of a few bad decisions than incur invisible costs that come from decisions made too slowly – or not at all. This approach helped us achieve great teamwork, integration of products & services a lot faster and over-achieve targets.

Turning to happier thoughts, we are pleased to announce that our acquisitions PicoPeta Simputers, Engage Solutions and Interactive Networks Inc. are firing on all cylinders. Products and services from these acquisitions have turned in exceptional performances this year. PicoPeta was merged into Geodesic Ltd in 2008 and Engage Solutions is now Geodesic (Hong Kong) Ltd. Interactive Networks Inc. has added more than 12 telecom operators to our customer list.

Geodesic has been conservative with its investments to ensure security and safety of these funds and we earn low returns at present on the cash and assets we hold in foreign currency.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

We have five major business units viz.

UNIFIED COMMUNICATION, COLLABORATION & CRM

The manner in which businesses are conducted in today's globalized world has witnessed a sea change. Organizations conduct businesses with customers across the globe and maintain their presence across geographies and time zones. While electronic channels have become the fundamental way of life for most enterprises, communicating effectively and efficiently within the enterprise and with multiple customers across the globe still remains a major challenge.

Geodesic's Unified Communications & Collaboration (Continuum) delivers real-time communication and collaboration services across a powerful contact management module—from enterprise instant messaging (text/voice) and online meetings, telephony, video conferencing, desktop sharing, white-boarding and annotation—through a single user interface. Geodesic Continuum unifies the user experience while leveraging an enterprise's existing IT and telephony infrastructure.

Geodesic Continuum tracks and logs communication and collaboration transcripts to enable the enterprise to analyze these as part of the CRM module to align prospects, customers, vendors etc all with the enterprise products and services.

Continuum can reduce business costs and enhance enterprise productivity. Continuum helps people find, reach and collaborate smarter with others and reduce sales cycle. Continuum's architecture will allow us to address small/medium businesses with the same ease as we will address the large business houses.

Unified communication & collaboration is a US$17 billion market opportunity and CRM another US$6.6 billion globally by 2013 as mentioned by research firms, In-stat and Gartner Group. India alone will be a huge market and will constitute 15% of the APAC market. We are confident that Continuum will make the most of these markets going forward.

MOBILE MEDIA & VAS

In the backdrop of intensifying competition, large spectrum costs, compounded with spiraling marketing costs and declining ARPUs, mobile operators now realize that customer retention and effective up-selling/cross-selling are the keys to success. The exclusive focus on acquisitions has resulted in a large number of subscriber acquisitions, but the challenge now is to retain the subscribers and maximize the value of each subscriber. At the same time, handset OS fragmentation is here to stay and the number of smart phones proliferating is gaining momentum at a rapid pace. The total smart phone market is estimated to be around 30% of the total handsets sold around the world. Smartphone manufacturers are embedding applications as part of their pre-shipped devices or creating Application stores to ensure consumers derive more value for their money spent on smart phones.

Geodesic is at the forefront of mobile application development and value added services. We have been developing mobile applications since 2003 and have won several global awards including the prestigious GSM Asia award for the best mobile Internet service for our pioneering communication and entertainment applications. Our mobile application framework is uniquely positioned to address three market segments viz. Telecom Network Operators, Handset Manufacturers and Retail Consumers in the Mobile Media and VAS business space. Geodesic has one of the widest platform (OS and Hardware) support and services to support our applications.

Geodesic's Mundu has two distinct mobile application stacks -

- A communication stack that includes Mundu IM (an aggregation of various IM services viz. AIM, Facebook, GTalk, ICQ, MSN and Yahoo), SMS over the net, Spokn (our internet telephony system) and Mundu Sync (a comprehensive contact backup and management system)
- An entertainment stack comprising of Mundu Radio (streaming Internet Radio across 35000+ global stations & premium Indian content) and Mundu TV (streaming 20+ live television and video on demand service)

We have now included social media products as part of our product profile and are confident that we have been even more relevant in the mobile media and VAS markets. And this has reflected in Geodesic signing significant deals with top Telecom Network Operators and Handset Manufacturers.

The mobile media and VAS industry has been growing at more than 50% year on year and is expected to be a US$340 billion market by 2014. The mobile media and VAS industry is expected to get a further boost with the advent of 3G and 4G roll-outs happening world over.

We are working on building the complete value chain in our space to ensure we stay ahead of the competition in the mobile media and VAS business.

ELECTRONIC COMPUTING PLATFORM:

One of the major obstacles to economic progress and growth is the lack of technical infrastructure and technology-enabled processes that enable good governance. The primary drivers of a nation's economic progress are E-governance, E-democracy and E-inclusion. E-governance is at the core of a wider concept of the Information Society, and has been recognized as an emerging development goal for all developing economies around the world.

A healthy and growing economy with technology enabled processes will fuel Geodesic's future business success in India and the developing nations. India is a region of tremendous opportunity for Geodesic and we see a huge demand for technology solutions over the next four years. With this in mind, Geodesic rebuilt Amida a powerful hand-held device that could be used by State & Central Government agencies for the purposes of authentication, validation, remote data processing and connectivity. Amida is now GeoAmida and includes a Linux based computing device that is integrated with smart card reader/ writers, printer, bio-metric sensors, RFID readers, GPS, GPRS/ Wi-Fi/ Bluetooth with further scope of adding camera and other devices through a USB port.

GeoAmida is currently being used for a wide range of applications including, National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA), Public Distribution System, Financial Inclusion, and Remote Health Management. Other possible areas include Law Enforcement and several remote service delivery situations. GeoAmida includes a Linux based terminal, a biometric sensor, two smart card reader/ writers, a printer, GPS, Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, USB ports, GPRS connectivity and RFID/ Bar code scanners.

GeoAmida has been implemented/piloted across these verticals in the states of Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Kerala and Andhra Pradesh. GeoAmida has been used successfully in the implementation of financial inclusion implemented by Fullerton, State Bank of Hyderabad, Central Bank of India etc.

India's spend on information technology and E-governance may touch about $4 billion next fiscal, according to Ministry of IT and Communication. Moreover, all State Governments and agencies will now have to compulsorily spend 2-3 per cent of their budgets on technology.

We at Geodesic are excited with opportunities in the E-governance space and are confident we will generate substantial business from this segment.

.Fn FINANCIAL PRODUCTS & SERVICES:

The economic slowdown and the subsequent recovery has thrown up a lot of interesting opportunities for Geodesic's Financial Products suite – “.Fn”.

On one hand HNIs have started preferring a more direct involvement in making investment choices and more transparent reporting systems. The global HNI investment trends reflect a mood of cautious approach backed by substantial analysis of risk factors and needs. On the other hand, the Retail Investor continues to become more aware and informed preferring control and transparency. Service providers ranging from Wealth Managers, Advisors, Brokers and Distributors continue to hold “high service quality” as their main strategy for customer retention and growth. Most of these businesses tend to see ‘technology’ as an important driver towards consolidating their positions in a business of scales.

Geodesic's .Fn suite of financial products is designed to address the main interface between enterprise systems of Financial Services companies and their ever-demanding customer base. Our products are designed to enhance transparency and encourage analysis by using advanced statistical engines and captivating user interfaces.

Wealth Console: A consolidated investment reporting and analysis solution. Beyond investment analysis the Wealth Console also serves as a central communications engine (powered by Spokn). The key value proposition it brings to a PMS/Wealth Management firm is that it manages to bring together account statements and reports over large time periods and enables transparent analysis of investment decisions through a single window.

WalletWAP: A “trade-ready” mobile application aimed at instant access to an individual's Portfolio round the clock. The solution also gives complete access to market data and broker research. The primary benefit to a broker/distributor being that WalletWAP offers a ready to use, high-end portfolio reporting system to broker's customers - at a fraction of the cost. Geodesic offers the WalletWAP in a hosted mode thus absorbing the cost of infrastructure and bandwidth. Some of the early successes we achieved were at HDFC Securities Ltd and Business Standard Limited.

Custom Development: Geodesic has been developing some of the top online financial solutions since 2001. However more recently, we have added a few powerful Analytics Frameworks to make our custom development services more value-rich and competitive. Some of our recent deliveries were www.edelweiss.in, www.smartinvestor.in and www.myvucapital.com.

According to the 2010 World Wealth Report (By Merrill Lynch & Capgemini) the global HNI wealth stood at US$39 trillion with Asia Pacific region accounting for 30.9% at US$9.7 trillion. Closer home, there are over 17 million DP accounts.

CONTENT:

Content is the power behind many mobile VAS services and portals. Geodesic has been acquiring content in the space of education, audio & video entertainment and live news. We first acquired Chandamama - India's most valued children's magazine. We then signed agreements to stream and allow consumers to download Indian premium music, on demand video including live TV across multiple labels and channels across all digital devices.

Chandamama reaches out to more than 250,000 consumers in India and abroad every month. Chandamama is perhaps the only children's magazine in the world to be published in over 13 Indian languages. Chandamama's library of stories and articles is broad and vast. It is equivalent to story a day for the next 18 years without putting pen to paper without repeating the story even once. We have undertaken a massive exercise of digitizing and mobilizing the content to ensure we deliver mythology stories, information, science and technology articles on to computers and mobile phones in a way children are provided with all round education and information through channels, the new Generation prefers. Chandamama.com, our online magazine is now accessed in 84 countries and is published in as many as 13 Indian languages.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Mundu Radio and TV - are now powered by the massive legal content aggregation Geodesic has undertaken. This strategy has helped Geodesic break barriers with large telephone network operators and handset/ device manufacturers world -wide since India is the preferred destination for all these telecom operators and handset manufacturers.

Most of our products and services have been derived from our integrated and modular content, communication and collaboration management platform. And our communication and collaboration products are integrated as part of our electronic computing platform.

We address multiple segments and generate our revenues from the following:

- Enterprise customers including Banking and Financial Services, Oil and Gas companies, Automobile companies and Multi National companies
- Portals and Publishers
- System Integrators
- Telecom Network Operators and Handset Manufacturers
- State & Central Governments

Geodesic has spread its reach across multiple continents and we have 12 offices around the world. We are 600+ people today and are actively hiring good talent. Geodesic retains its culture of intrapreneurship and embraces it as one of our fundamental strengths. Our culture encourages ideation and collaboration to address complex technical challenges. In addition, we welcome individual thinking and creativity. Many of our people, besides being technologists, are bikers, photographers, avid trekkers and sportsmen of repute and above all equity holders of Geodesic.

We have been awarded the Deloitte Asia 500 for the 5th consecutive year. We won several product awards - prominent amongst these are Best Mobile Internet Service by GSM Asia for Mundu IM for the Android platform and Social Innovation Honors 2010 for GeoAmida by NASSCOM.

We accomplished a lot last year despite the economic downturn and are excited by all we still can do. The trust that our customers, vendors and investors - place in us is something we value and take seriously. We take this opportunity to thank our customers, shareholders, partners, users, employees, families and everybody else we may have forgot to mention.

Geodesic has been steadily building a content repository that ranges from children's content to education to entertainment. Geodesic actively used its content management system to help movie studios to combat the online anti-piracy menace and help these studios get more theater footfall and thereby earn more revenues for their movies.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

REVENUE GENERATION:

Geodesic derives its revenues from the following segments:

ENTERPRISE OFFERING:

Geodesic offers its unique enterprise solutions to and derives its revenues from Enterprise customers including Banking & Financial Services Institutions, Portals and Publishers, State and Central Government, Telecom Network Operators, Handset Manufacturers, Educational institutions, Small/Medium & Large Enterprises. Our strong Business Development team ensures we reach out to enterprises across the globe using a combination of a direct sales and through system integrators / partners/ value added resellers.

RETAIL OFFERING:

The Mundu stack of products are retailed across www.mundu.com, multiple application stores including Nokia's Ovi Store, Apple's App Store, Palm Store, Blackberry Store etc. We launched Spokn- our Internet telephony product across www.spokn.com and Application Stores. Our products have had great editorial and user reviews besides winning GSM Asia, PC Magazine and C|net awards.

Geodesic's flexible content, communication and collaboration platform allows us to implement multiple solutions and business models to address multiple segments with ease. While we strive to maintain uniform pricing and business models across the globe, region specific sensibilities constrain us from implementing a uniform global business models. However, our business model includes a strong recurring revenue component across our products and market verticals.

"Continuum" - our unified communication, collaboration, content management and CRM software provides a comprehensive platform that allows enterprises to communicate and collaborate seamlessly over all communication channels including Email, Instant Messaging, SMS and Voice. Continuum lets enterprises use their existing infrastructure such as EPABXs, desktops and analog phones.

We acquired Engage Solutions Hong Kong (now called Geodesic Hong Kong Limited Ltd) in 2005, a company that offers Spyder - a comprehensive Customer Relationship Management system that aligns customers based on three dimensions - people, product and campaigns. Fees derived from Spyder are recognized as recurring license fees on a per seat per month basis from enterprises. Geodesic has integrated this CRM module as part of Continuum to ensure better customer management and retention. Spyder is also licensed as a stand alone product to enterprises that need a CRM system.

Continuum is compliant with regulatory authorities in most regions and is based on open standards and integrates with most ERP systems, Work and Document Flow Management systems to ensure a seamless experience across enterprise applications. Continuum cuts enterprise communication costs by over 35% and greatly increases employee productivity without losing on convenience.

Geodesic works with several system integrators and channel partners besides our direct sales team to reach out to enterprises worldwide. We have established a business model that is unique to this segment and we charge a recurring license fee on a per user per month basis to the enterprise whereas we integrate modules of Continuum with system integrators and mirror their business model.

Modules of Continuum such as Instant Messaging, SMS, content management are also white labeled for Portals and Publishers to engage their users with content and lead to revenue generation from advertisements. Universal communication tools viz. Instant Messaging, SMS, Content Management allow Portals and Publishers to acquire users at a fraction of a cost that is generally spent on user acquisition.

We have garnered a substantial user base across various enterprise segments. However, Continuum in most cases requires a fair amount of integration and customization with their deployed enterprise systems. Geodesic takes complete ownership of the enterprise account and outsources customization to IT services companies to ensure we remain focused on products. Unified Communication, Collaboration and CRM as a concept is in the growth phase and has immense growth opportunities. Unified communication, collaboration and CRM contributed substantially to our revenues during fiscal 2010. Geodesic is actively pursuing this space and expects substantial growth from this business unit.

Mobile media and VAS refers to our applications viz. Mundu IM, Mundu SMS, Mundu Radio, Mundu TV and Spokn. These applications are largely used by retail consumers the world over and Geodesic has successfully managed to address three major sub segments of the mobile media and VAS viz. Telecom Network Operators, Mobile Handset Manufacturers and Retail Consumers. Geodesic's strategy to reach out to retail consumers through handset manufacturers and telecom operators has led to Geodesic lowering its user acquisition costs.

Geodesic has different approaches in modeling our business with the following three sub-segments; We rely on per user per month subscription fee for Telecom Operators and charge a per phone royalty fee per handset for device manufacturers. Geodesic's retail strategy has largely been subscription and usage driven. Instant messaging has been fairly commoditized and we have reduced our subscription fees for Mundu IM from US$11 to US$2.99. The current Mundu IM version includes social networking connects to make it more relevant to the Facebook/ Twitter generation. However, we are scheduled to launch a universal mobile messenger across popular platforms including iPhone, Blackberry, Android, Symbian and Palm Web OS. We are confident that this universal mobile messenger will revolutionize the way people interact with one another.

We acquired Interactive Networks Inc. (INI) a company that offers certified instant messaging solutions to the telecom network providers. INI strongly strengthens our telecom operator market and we have now signed with more than 17 telecom operators across Latin America, Asia, Africa and Europe.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

The demand for mobile audio, gaming, information and video applications will grow substantially in the next three years with the advent of 3G/4G/ Wimax/ LTE networks being rolled out. Mundu radio and Mundu TV stream audio and video including Live TV (News, Business News, Sports, Entertainment etc) and video-on-demand. Mundu Radio currently has more than 35000 audio channels and Mundu TV has more than 20 live television channels besides a lot of video on demand content. Both these entertainment products have been well accepted by consumers worldwide. Mundu Radio and TV both support a wide range of networks (GPRS/EDGE/ 3G/WIFI) and devices to suit the needs of the products.

Spokn our voice over the internet service is a complete telephony system and takes advantage of the fact 50% of all voice traffic will move over the Internet. With networks and technologies getting better, Voice quality is bound to improve dramatically. And perhaps, this is the one reason, why telecom operators are inching towards integrating their existing infrastructure (traditional cell towers) with the Internet for their voice services.

Spokn provides consumers with a virtual phone numbering system in eight countries at this time and we will extend virtual phone numbering system to 40 different countries. Spokn's unique virtual phone numbering system makes Spokn users a local away in as many as eight countries as of now. Spokn rates are amongst the lowest calling rates in the world and do not include any hidden costs. Spokn is widely used by an enterprise in various new formats including click to call, voice blast and drop, integrated calling from within E-mail etc.

Spokn enjoys the status of a licensed Internet telephony Service Provider in Singapore and has termination agreements with multiple telecom service providers around the world. Revenues for Spokn come in from call minutes used by enterprises as part of Continuum and retail consumers. Spokn is available on desktops and prominent mobile platforms including the iPhone, Blackberry, Symbian etc.

We acquired PicoPeta Simputers Private Limited in 2006, a company that pioneered Asia's first handheld computer in 2002 and built several path-breaking applications around the Simputer. Geodesic found great synergies with PicoPeta and its people in terms of our focus on mobile applications and zest for innovative work. We merged PicoPeta with Geodesic Ltd in 2008 and wrote off our investment then.

With the Indian economy growing faster than ever before, the Indian Government focused on E-Governance projects to mainstream the marginalized people. One of the key issues faced by the Government was authenticating and validating people in remote locations besides connectivity options. Geodesic built GeoAmida - an integrated Linux based device that includes a bio-metric sensor, smart card readers & writer, printer, GPS, RFID/Bar Code Scanner, connectivity options viz. Wi-Fi, GPRS/ EDGE/ CDMA/ 3G etc. GeoAmida won the prestigious Nasscom Social Innovation Honors during the year.

Geodesic adopted a strategy of aligning itself with prominent system integrators that handled E-governance and Financial Inclusion projects across financial institutions, state and central Governments. And this strategy has paid off - we have integrated GeoAmida and its versatile open API software with most system integrators in India. GeoAmida is currently being used in various applications including Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme, Public Distribution System, Law Enforcement, Education, Transport, Remote health care management and Financial Inclusion.

The opportunity for GeoAmida as a micro ATM and as an authenticating / validating device in the prestigious Unique Identity project is huge over the next five years. We have set up infrastructure in the state of Uttaranchal to cater to the growing demand for the GeoAmida.

GeoAmida is sold as a hardware device with a 12 month warranty and we charge annual maintenance and upgrade fees from the second year. Customization if any, is charged at person-hour rates.

Geodesic laid emphasis on building content to power our value added services offering and acquired Chandamama - a prestigious children's magazine that has been around for more than 6 decades. Chandamama is published in 13 Indian languages and its content includes information, education, mythology, puzzles & games. Chandamama is currently being digitized and mobilized for global audiences. Consumers can browse through earlier copies of Chandamama on www.chandamama.com. Chandamama has more than 26 registered characters and close to 70000 stories. People from over 84 countries access Chandamama.com and we are working towards building Chandamama into an international brand. Chandamama content will be used as a service offering in many of our Mundu products besides providing Chandamama stories to Film Studios and Production houses.

Astrology, Bollywood and Cricket rate as India's top entertainment options and these options are now being mobilized. Geodesic sees a huge opportunity in this space and has acquired substantial content in the space of entertainment (audio and video). Geodesic has launched a Beta version of its own entertainment offering in the form of www.filmorbit.com. The site caters to film connoisseurs with deep content discovery options, social network updates and commerce. The site offers legal streaming of music, videos and films on desktops and mobile platforms. We are certain that this content will boost usage for Mundu Radio and Mundu TV on the retail front and also allow us to have strategic partnerships with telecom operators and mobile handset manufacturers.

Geodesic has been integrating content with mobile media and VAS offerings to ensure we supplement our technology with content services. We have seen a growing trend of partners aligning with companies like Geodesic because of their ability to package a solution around strong technology and content services.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

BUSINESS TRENDS:

Our business has grown swiftly since inception, resulting in substantially increased revenues, and we expect that our business will continue to grow. However, our revenue growth rate generally declined over the last few quarters as a result of a number of factors including increasing competition, new development initiatives, enhanced sales cycle. In addition, the current general economic downturn may result in fewer commercial deals, which could negatively affect the growth rate of our revenues.

Geodesic has taken effective steps to ensure consistent revenue growth rate by reorienting our existing products and market verticals. This reorientation will help us penetrate newer market segments. The main focus of our marketing plans is to provide relevant and useful products/ services to our users, reflecting our commitment to constantly reduce their communication costs and improve their overall experience. As a result, we expect to continue to take steps to improve our product/ service offerings and acquire technologies and companies that add value and enhance our revenues.

We continue to invest in building necessary employee and systems infrastructure required to manage our growth and develop and promote our products and services, and this may cause our operating margins to decrease marginally. We have experienced and expect to continue to experience growth in our operations as we build our research and development programs, expand our base of users, system integrators, app stores, content providers, and increase our presence in international markets. Also, we have acquired and expect to continue to acquire businesses and other technologies going forward. These acquisitions generally enhance the breadth and depth of our products and services offering, expertise in engineering and other functional areas. Our full-time employee head count has increased over the last 12 months, growing to 600+. We have recently made efforts to improve the discipline of our hiring process and we expect to continue to invest in our business, and this may cause our operating margins to decrease.

Our domestic revenues have grown as a percentage of our total revenues in 2009-2010. This increase in the portion of our revenues derived from the Indian markets resulted largely from GeoAmida sales, Continuum licenses and new Telecom operators for our VAS offerings.

The increase in international revenues derived from international markets increases our exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency to Re. exchange rates. We have a foreign exchange hedging program that is designed to reduce our exposure to fluctuations in foreign currencies, however this plan will not fully offset the effect of fluctuations on our revenues and earnings.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE:

We generate our revenue by developing, licensing, usage fees and supporting a wide range of software products and services for various market segments and digital devices. Our software products and services include Continuum, Spyder, Mundu communication & entertainment stack, Wealth Console, Content Management System and GeoAmida.

Geodesic grossed revenues of ₹ 637 crore in 2010 as against ₹ 653 crore in 2009. Our earnings for fiscal 2010 were ₹ 224 crore as against ₹ 264 crore in fiscal 2009. The net increase in cash flow for fiscal 2010 was ₹ 21 crore.

Revenues declined across most segments primarily driven by weakness in purchasing technology products globally and the unfavorable economic environment. Primary factors contributing to the decline include the following:

- Revenue from unified communication, collaboration and CRM declined reflecting delayed purchases of technology and productivity software systems. A price reduction of 25% in license fee for existing and long served customers and a decline in the uptake of licenses by system integrators.
- Revenue from our Mobile media and VAS division decreased across device manufacturers and retail consumers. The decline in revenue is primarily due to lower shipment of smart phones than the projected quantity and price reduction across all products for the retails consumers during the last 12 months.

The above declines were partially offset by increased revenue derived from the electronic computing division, reflecting Geodesic's ability to reorient its products and cover lost ground in terms of revenue and creating newer market segments.

Operating income decreased primarily reflecting decreased revenue. Operating expenses including research and development costs increased along with increased general, administrative and sales and marketing expenses aided by increased head-count related expenses, cost of revenue, and support costs.

- General expenses including administrative, sales and marketing costs increased ₹ 57 crore or 7%, primarily due to increased costs for new offices, logistics and contingencies. As part of that program, we increased our marketing and advertising expenses to promote our brands.
- Human resource related expenses amounted to an increase of ₹ 21 crore or 9% , driven by an increase in head-count during the past 12 months and an increase in salaries and benefits for existing head-count.
- Cost of revenue increased ₹ 36 crore or 9%, primarily reflecting increased marketing and Business development costs, online costs, including online traffic acquisition, data center and equipment, software systems, network management, logistics and head-count related costs.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

COST OF REVENUE:

Cost of revenue includes developing and distribution costs for products sold and applications licensed, operating costs related to product support service centers and product distribution centers, costs incurred to drive traffic to our website, costs incurred to support and maintain Internet-based products and services, warranty costs, inventory for GeoAmida, costs associated with the delivery of enterprise solutions & services, writing off software development expenses and amortization of capitalized work-in-progress development costs associated with software products that are being developed currently.

We expect cost of revenues to increase as a percentage of revenues in the future as a result of forecasted increase in data centre and bandwidth costs for Spokn, Mundu Radio & TV services, content acquisition, extended Business Development and Sales, setting up support and logistics systems for GeoAmida, higher inventory, software development expenses (outsourcing & software packages purchase) and online transaction costs.

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT:

Research and development expenses consist primarily of compensation and related costs including equipment and software package purchases for personnel responsible for the research and development of new products and services, as well as significant improvements to existing products and services. We expense research and development costs as they are incurred. In addition, there was an increase in depreciation and related expenses due to our increased capital expenditures.

We expect that research and development expenses will continue to increase and may increase as a percentage of revenues in 2011 and future periods because we expect to employ more research and development personnel on average compared to prior periods and build the infrastructure required to support the development of new and improve existing, products and services.

SALES & MARKETING:

Sales and marketing expenses include payroll, employee benefits, stock-based compensation expense, customer service and other head-count related expenses associated with sales, marketing and support personnel besides advertising, promotions, trade shows, seminars, conferences and other programs.

We anticipate that sales and marketing expenses may continue to increase and as a percentage of revenues in 2010 and future periods as we continue to expand our business on a worldwide basis.

INCOME TAX:

Income tax, in case of the Company and its Indian subsidiaries, comprises of current tax provision and the net change in the deferred tax. Current tax provision is made in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961 in case of the parent Company and its Indian Subsidiaries and in case of foreign subsidiaries, as per the relevant Tax Laws and Acts applicable in the respective countries. The tax effect of temporary differences between the book profit and taxable profit are reflected through Deferred Tax Asset / Deferred Tax Liability.

Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance to the tax laws, which gives rise to the future economic benefits in the form of adjustment of future income tax liabilities, is considered as an asset if there is a convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax after the tax holiday period. The tax effect of temporary differences between the book profit and taxable profit are reflected through Deferred Tax Asset / Deferred Tax Liability.

The Company is eligible for 100% tax holiday under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 until March 2011. The Company has started operations in SEEPZ from end of September 2008, which is a SEZ and which is entitled to 100% tax holiday under Section 10AA of the Income Tax Act, 1961 until March 2019. As a result, deferred tax, arising out of timing differences originating and reversing during the tax holiday period, is recognized.

The Company started manufacture of GeoAmida at their unit in Roorkee, Uttaranchal, which is located in a tax free zone eligible for tax holiday under section 80(I)C of the Indian Income tax Act, 1961.

No provision is considered necessary for taxation for the year since there is no taxable income under the normal provisions of the Income Tax Act. Further even the book profit is not liable to Minimum Alternate Tax as the same entirely arises from an undertaking in the Special Economic Zone (SEZ).

In case of foreign subsidiaries, tax provision has been made in accordance with the tax laws prevailing in those countries.

AN INSPIRING WORKPLACE AGAINST ALL ODDS:

The uncertain economic conditions opened up a huge opportunity to acquire people talent and Geodesic did not let this opportunity go past it. We acquired great young talent from top institutes in the country and acquired experienced people from a host of great companies to strengthen our senior and middle management besides supplementing our growth going forward.

Geodesic has built a culture of intrapreneurship and embraced it as one of our fundamental strengths. Our culture encourages ideation and collaboration to address complex technical challenges. In addition, we welcome individual thinking and creativity. We have assembled a highly talented group of employees. Despite our rapid growth in the last decade, we constantly maintain a start-up feel that promotes interaction and the exchange of ideas amongst one another in the company. We strive to maintain a flat corporate hierarchy to facilitate meaningful communication among employees at all levels, across departments and subsidiaries.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

STRATEGY GOING FORWARD

Geodesic's business has grown rapidly over the past decade and our strategy of partnering with like minded companies, system integrators, popular web stores in distributing our products has resulted in consistent revenue and earnings growth. We will continue with our strategy of partnering with like enterprises going in FY 2011.

We are and will be investing heavily in building the necessary system and network infrastructure required to manage our growth. We will develop new products and services in the space of unified communication and collaboration on the mobile phones and other digital devices.

We will continue to invest in our research and development program to build products to increase our presence in international markets including the developing countries. We have acquired and expect to acquire businesses and technologies as and when the opportunity presents itself.

The economic downturn has provided us with another opportunity - Talented workforce. Our full-time head count has now touched 600+ people and we will continue to invest in talented people to stay ahead of the competition.

We will make significant capital expenditure investments into information technology infrastructure and offices globally to increase our market footprint internationally. As a result of all of the above, the growth rate of our expenditure may exceed our revenue growth.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR BUSINESS

POTENTIAL FLUCTUATIONS IN RESULTS

Our operating results may fluctuate because of a variety of factors including changing economic conditions and its related effects on workforce size, purchasing patterns, compliance with new regulatory requirements, mix of products and services sold, ability to effectively integrate acquired businesses and industry trends.

PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT AND TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

Continual change and improvement in software connectivity, hardware technologies characterize the markets for communication and collaboration systems. The Company's future success will depend largely on its ability to increase the capabilities and enhance its existing products, to develop new products and interfaces to third-party products on a timely basis to meet the increasingly sophisticated needs of its customers.

ATTRACTING AND RETAINING TECHNICAL PERSONNEL

Geodesic has successfully managed to hire the best talent from across the globe. However, the company may encounter intense competition for experienced technical personnel for product development, technical support, marketing and sales. This could adversely affect our ability to develop, support and sell products on time.

COMPETITION

We operate in a market characterized by swift changes and convergence. We face formidable competition in every aspect of our business; particularly from companies that seek to connect people across geographies over IP based communication and collaboration on multiple platforms. We do face competition from other mobile VAS providers, including start-ups as well as developed companies that are enhancing or developing mobile applications and technologies.

We provide several web and mobile products and services, including a universal instant messenger, SMS, VoIP, Internet Radio and Live TV & video on demand besides financial products, that compete directly with new and established companies that offer communication, content, and entertainment services integrated into their products or media properties.

Geodesic however, has a well-integrated platform that includes content management, communication, collaboration and a CRM module across platforms that will ensure we stay ahead of the curve. We are augmenting features and products to our existing products and own the complete value chain of products and services we address.

DEPENDENCE ON ALTERNATE DISTRIBUTION CHANNELS

The Company markets and sells its products through its direct sales organization, independent value added resellers, OEMs and System Integrators. Substantial portion of our revenue was generated through sales to dealers and OEMs. Reduction in the sales efforts of the Company's major dealers and/or OEMs, or termination or changes in their relationships with the Company, could have an adverse effect on the results of the Company's operations.

RELIANCE ON KEY VENDORS

The Company depends upon the reliability and viability of a variety of software development tools owned by third parties to develop its products. If these tools are inadequate or not properly supported, the Company's ability to release competitive products in a timely manner could be adversely effected. Also, certain parts and components used in the Company's hardware products are purchased from single suppliers. Complete dependency from single source may have an adverse effect on the Company's operating results.

OUTSTANDING PAYMENT

The company faces problems of outstanding payments, with new customers and existing debtors asking for a longer credit period owing to the global meltdown. The cash turn around cycle can be longer and cash flows may get affected in future periods.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS:

Geodesic fiscal 2010 was a "mixed-bag year". Geodesic, for the first time, saw a decline in our growth during fiscal 2010 after having achieved a sustained growth rate, year on year during the last ten years. The global recession has had a major impact on the financial performance of companies around the world in virtually every industry in fiscal 2010, and Geodesic was no exception. However, we do not wish to cite recession, global meltdown or difficult environment as excuses. We are planning to include counter measures to handle these downturns going forward.

Thanks to our fiscal strength and prudent approach to investment, a strong pipeline of new products and services, marketing reach and addressing newer segments helped us tide over the difficult business environment. We responded to the uncertain economic environment with speed and agility to cover lost ground but at no point in time, did we sacrifice on innovation, employee motivation, customer satisfaction, acquisitions and building partnerships with like-minded companies.

Geodesic continued its focus on developing technologies that allow people to communicate and collaborate with one another across multiple digital devices using a universal interface. Geodesic's flexible and unified content, communication and collaboration platform named 'Continuum' helps us target the enterprise and retail consumer markets with ease.

Geodesic designs, manufactures and markets mobile communication and Internet devices. These devices are pre-loaded with our communication and collaboration software to address last mile connectivity issues and remote data processing by Governments, Banking and Micro-finance companies.

Geodesic grossed revenues of ₹ 637 crore in 2010 as against ₹ 653 crore in 2009. Our earnings for fiscal 2010 was ₹ 224 crore as against ₹ 264 crore in fiscal 2009. The net increase in cash flow for fiscal 2010 was ₹ 21 crores.

Revenues declined across most segments primarily driven by weakness in purchasing technology products globally and the unfavorable economic environment. Primary factors contributing to the decline include the following:

- Revenue from unified communication, collaboration and CRM declined reflecting delayed purchases of technology and productivity software systems. A price reduction of 25% in license fee for existing and long served customers along with a decline in the uptake of licenses by system integrators.
- Revenue from our Mobile media and VAS division decreased across device manufacturers and retail consumers. The decline in revenue is primarily due to lower shipment of smart phones than the projected quantity and price reduction across all products for the retail consumers during the last 12 months.

The above declines were partially offset by increased revenue derived from the electronic computing division, reflecting Geodesic's ability to reorient its products and cover lost ground in terms of revenue and creating newer market segments.

Operating income decreased primarily reflecting decreased revenue. Operating expenses including research and development costs increased along with increased general, administrative and sales and marketing expenses aided by increased head-count related expenses, cost of revenue, and support costs.

Geodesic derived its revenues from the following segments during fiscal 2010:

ENTERPRISE OFFERING: Geodesic offers its unique enterprise solutions to and derives its revenues from Enterprise customers including Banking & Financial Services Institutions, Portals and Publishers, State and Central Government, Telecom Network Operators, Handset Manufacturers, Educational Institutions, Small/Medium & Large Enterprises. Our strong Business Development team ensures we reach out to enterprises across the globe using a combination of a direct sales team and system integrators / partners/ value added resellers.

RETAIL OFFERING: The Mundu stack of products are retailed across www.mundu.com, multiple application stores including Nokia's Ovi Store, Apple's App Store, Palm Store, Blackberry Stores etc. We launched Spokn- our Internet telephony product across www.spokn.com and application stores. Our products have had great editorial and user reviews besides winning GSM Asia, PC Magazine and C|net awards.

Geodesic's exhaustive list of products and services are mostly derived out of Continuum and address multiple market segments. Following products and services were sold/ licensed during fiscal 2010:

ENTERPRISE PRODUCTS & SERVICES:

Continuum: A comprehensive unified content management, communication, collaboration and CRM system that lets employees communicate and collaborate with customers, prospects, vendors and other employees.

Spyder: A stand-alone Customer Relationship Management system that aligns customer/ prospects by product, contacts and campaigns.

Web Services: Customization and integration services Geodesic undertook to ensure Continuum and Spyder integrate well with existing and other enterprise applications.

We acquired our enterprise customers using multiple strategies and channels. We deployed a strong direct sales team besides building a global business development team to ensure we have adequate partners and system integrators to reach out to different geographies. Our efforts paid and we have added a host of new countries to our list of geographies we address as markets.

Our pricing has remained consistent but the uncertain economic condition forced us to reduce our license fee by almost 25% during this year. Our move to reduce our license fees pro-actively during this economic crisis was appreciated by our long-standing customers. We have seen a lot more interaction with these customers on their new technology requirements and needs.

We added more than 75+ people during the course of the year.

Geodesic retained its culture of intrapreneurship and embraced it as one of our fundamental strengths. Our culture encourages ideation and collaboration to address complex technical challenges. In addition, we welcome individual thinking and creativity. Many of our people are bikers, photographers, avid trekkers, sportsmen of repute and above all equity holders of Geodesic.

Geodesic forged a major alliance with Zee Entertainment Enterprise Ltd to form a new company that goes by the name ITM Digital Private Limited to address the growing need of consumers to converge entertainment and information on multiple digital devices and on three screens (TV/desktop/Mobile) that consumers are used to.

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset including goodwill may be impaired. In case of such indication, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs to is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the Profit and Loss Account. If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

In respect of development costs and goodwill the impairment loss will be reversed only when it is caused by specific external events and their effects have been reversed by subsequent external events.

h. Investments:

Investments that are intended to be held for a period not more than a year at the time of purchase are classified as a current investment. All other investments are classified as long term investments. Current Investments comprising investments in mutual funds are carried at lower of cost and fair value determined on an individual investment basis. Long term investments are carried at cost. However the provision for diminution in value is made to recognise a decline other than temporary in the value of long term investments.

i. Leases:

Leases where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased term, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in the Profit and Loss Account on a straight line basis over the lease term.

j. Foreign Currency Transactions:

The Company is exposed to currency fluctuations on foreign currency transactions.

• Initial Recognition

Foreign Currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

• Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are converted into reported currency on the balance sheet date using the closing rate.

• Exchange Difference

The difference between the rate at which foreign currency transactions are accounted and the rate at which they are realized / settled is recognized in the Profit and Loss Account.

• The Company uses foreign exchange forward and option contracts to hedge its exposure to movements in foreign exchange rates. The use of these foreign exchange forward and option contracts reduce the risk or cost to the Company and the Company does not use those for trading or speculation purposes.

NOTES ON ACCOUNTS

Income tax, in case of the Company and its Indian subsidiaries, comprises of current tax provision and the net change in the deferred tax. Current tax provision is made in accordance with the Income Tax Act, 1961 in case of the parent Company and its Indian Subsidiaries and in case of foreign subsidiaries, as per the relevant Tax Laws and Acts applicable in the respective countries. The tax effect of temporary differences between the book profit and taxable profit are reflected through Deferred Tax Asset / Deferred Tax Liability.

Minimum Alternative Tax (MAT) paid in accordance to the tax laws, which gives rise to the future economic benefits in the form of adjustment of future income tax liabilities, is considered as an asset if there is a convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax after the tax holiday period. The tax effect of temporary differences between the book profit and taxable profit are reflected through Deferred Tax Asset / Deferred Tax Liability.

The Company is eligible for 100% tax holiday under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act, 1961 until March 2011. The Company has started operations in SEEPZ from end of September 2008, which is a SEZ and which is entitled to 100% tax holiday under Section 10AA of the Income Tax Act, 1961 until March 2019. As a result, deferred tax, arising out of timing differences originating and reversing during the tax holiday period, is recognised.

The Company started manufacture of GeoAmida at their unit in Roorkee, Uttaranchal, which is located in a tax free zone eligible for tax holiday under section 80(I)C of the Indian Income tax Act, 1961.

No provision is considered necessary for taxation for the year since there is no taxable income under the normal provisions of the Income Tax Act. Further even the book profit is not liable to Minimum Alternate Tax as the same entirely arises from an undertaking in the Special Economic Zone (SEZ).

In case of foreign subsidiaries, tax provision has been made in accordance with the tax laws prevailing in those countries.

m. Earnings per share:

The weighted number of equity shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for events of bonus issue; bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders; share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares). For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

n. Miscellaneous Expenditure:

The Company measures compensation cost relating to employee stock options using the intrinsic value method. Compensation expense is amortized over the vesting period of the option on a straight line basis.

q. Borrowing Costs:

The Company conservatively provides for interest on the FCCB at the notional interest rate as specified in the Term Sheet.
