- A. Total number of outstanding litigations against the Company is 39 and amount involved is ₹ 1,199.81 million
- B. Brief Details of top 5 material outstanding litigations against the company and the amount involved:

1.	Phonographic Performance Limited ("PPL") has filed a suit before the Bombay High Court against our Company alleging, inter alia , copyright infringement and failure to furnish bank guarantees (the "Suit"). During the period between 2006 and 2008, our Company and PPL had executed 20 separate voluntary licensing agreements for our radio stations, pursuant to which our Company was licensed to broadcast the sound recordings in the repertoire of PPL ("Voluntary Licensing Agreements"). The Voluntary Licensing Agreements were subject to the final outcome of the Copyright Board's decision in relation to grant of Compulsory License. In this regard, the Copyright Board by its order dated August 25, 2010 directed the Registrar of Copyrights to grant the Compulsory License. Our Company had adjusted the amounts paid in excess under the Voluntary Licensing Agreements, against the license fee payable under the Compulsory License and accordingly, no actual money was paid to PPL until such adjustment of excess payment. PPL by a letter dated June 21, 2013 had terminated the	PPL	The matter is pending before the Bombay High Court. Pursuant to an interim order dated November 16, 2016 of the Bombay High Court, Sony Music Entertainment India Private Limited was impleaded in the present suit.	₹ 1.00 million

	Compulsory Licenses alleging, inter alia , non-payment of license fee as per the Compulsory License, failure to furnish bank guarantee, submission of incorrect log reports and failure to provide relevant details regarding advertisements. Subsequent to such termination of the Compulsory License, PPL has filed the present Suit, wherein it has prayed for, inter alia , (i) a declaration that the broadcast of the sound recordings belonging to members of PPL by our Company, is illegal until a fresh voluntary license is issued to that effect; (ii) an injunction restraining our Company from broadcasting sound recordings belonging to members of PPL; and (iii) damages of ₹ 1.00 million for acts of infringement.
2. 3.	Super Cassette Industries Limited (“SCIL”) has filed a writ petition before the Delhi High Court against Union of India, our Company, SPML and others seeking a direction to set aside the Compulsory License Order. SCIL has submitted in the writ petition that although SCIL was not a party to the proceedings granting the Compulsory License, the Compulsory License Order was made applicable to SCIL, thereby violating the principles of natural justice of the ‘right to be heard’. Further, private FM radio broadcasters have demanded from SCIL that the royalty/license fee charged by SCIL for broadcast of the sound recordings owned by SCIL, should confirm with the Compulsory License Order.	SCIL	The matter is pending before the Delhi High Court. Pursuant to its interim order dated September 15, 2010, the Delhi High Court held that private FM radio broadcasters could not place reliance on the Compulsory License Order while negotiating rates of royalty/license fee with SCIL (the “September Order”). Separately, our Company, SPML and others have filed applications before the Copyright Board for grant of compulsory license against SCIL, which are pending. ENIL, one of the respondents to the present writ petition, had filed a letters patent appeal against the September Order, pursuant to which the division bench of the Delhi High Court by its order dated May 11, 2011 had held that Compulsory License Order should not be treated as a precedent and the adjudicating authority may render a different decision depending of the facts and circumstances of a particular case, which is left to be decided by the adjudicating authority. Further, the Delhi High Court by its interim order dated January 13, 2015 directed Union of India to ensure that Copyright Board is constituted within two months from the date of the order. The Union of India has submitted before the Delhi High Court that there is a stay by the Madras High Court in relation to appointments on the Copyright Board and that the process directed to be followed for making appointments is in process and will entail legislative amendment to the Copyright Act, 1957. The Delhi High Court by its interim order dated September 17, 2015 has observed that the issue of constitution of Copyright Board will have to be followed up through a public interest litigation before the Delhi High Court or the Supreme Court.
