Specialists short by 80% at community health centres

Hit by Covid, states' social sector expenditure increased during 2020-21

INDIVJAL DHASMANA
New Delhi, 21 November

Health specialists such as surgeons, obstetrician and gynaecologists, and physicians are awfully short of requirement of state community health centres (CHCs), showed data from the Reserve Bank of India recently.

As many as 79.90 per cent of the requirements were unfulfilled at these centres in 2021 compared to 76.09 per cent in 2020. The two years were hit by Covid-19 waves.

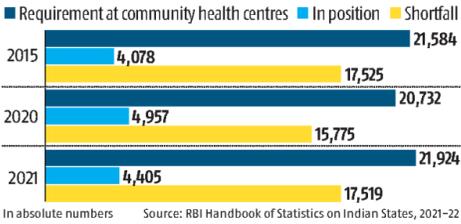

Against a requirement of 20,732 health specialists, only 4,957 were in position at these centres in 2020. That means only 24 per cent of the requirement was met that year, showed data in 'RBI Handbook of Statistics on Indian States' for 2021-22.

Only 4,405 health specialists were there in these centres against the requirement of 21,924 in 2021, meaning that the shortfall increased from 76 per cent in 2020 to 80 per cent in 2021.

Nationwide 81 per cent of the requirement was not fulfilled in 2015, the previous year for which the data was available. This meant that the availability of health experts at CHCs remained more or less awfully short.

In Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh, which are holding elections for their Assemblies, the situation is abysmally poor. As many as 1,280 health specialists were required in CHCs in Gujarat but only 74 were there in 2021. This meant that only six per cent of the requirement was met, leaving 94 per cent unfulfilled.

In Himachal Pradesh, seven health experts were there against the requirement of 312. This meant that only two per cent of the requirement was met at CHCs.

As far as availability of allopathic doctors in primary health centres were concerned, the situation was not so bad. For instance, there were 25,140 doctors required in these centres. Of these, the shortfall was only 1084 which constituted just four per cent of the requirement.

Social spending

Hit by two waves of Covid, states saw a surge in social sector expenditure. The spending in 2019-20 was ₹14.1 trillion, which was just 5 per cent higher than ₹13.4 trillion in the previous year.

However, the expenditure rose 20.98 per cent to ₹17.1 trillion (Revised Estimates) in 2020-21 as the states undertook massive social welfare schemes for the poor and the Centre relaxed their fiscal deficit limits for the year, struck by the first Covid wave and nationwide lockdowns for a few months.

The expenditure again increased by 14 per cent to ₹19.4 trillion (Budget Estimates) in 2021-22 when the devastating second wave of Covid-19 hit the country.

Cong to file review petition in SC on release of Rajiv murder convicts

The Congress will file a review petition in the Supreme Court challenging the decision to release six convicts of the Rajiv Gandhi assassination case, party sources said on Monday. The petition will be filed this week, they said. "A fresh review application challenging the Supreme Court decision to release the convicts on the grounds set out in the order will be filed on behalf of the party in the next few days," a party insider said. Facing criticism from the Congress, the government last week moved the Supreme Court seeking a review of its order for premature release of the convicts in the case.

Mangaluru blast accused 'inspired by global terror groups': Police

Police found materials that go into making bomb from the rented house in Mysuru of Mangaluru auto-rickshaw blast accused Mohammed Shariq, who was "influenced and inspired" by a global terrorist organisation, a senior police officer said on Monday. Additional Director General of Police (Law and Order), Alok Kumar said the police are trying to find out the 24-year-old's links with people outside Karnataka. "His handler was Abdul Mateen Taha from Suddaguntepalya (in Bengaluru) on whom the National Investigation Agency has announced a reward of ₹5 lakh," the ADGP said.

UTTAR PRADESH

Red carpet for private investors in ITeS sector

VIRENDRA SINGH RAWAT
Lucknow, 21 November

The Uttar Pradesh government has announced a slew of incentives and subsidies to encourage private investors and create local jobs in the Information Technology and IT-enabled Services (ITeS) sector.

Under the new UP IT Policy promulgated recently, the Yogi Adityanath government is developing an IT City in each of the four regions — Purvanchal (Eastern UP), Paschimanchal (Western UP), Madhyanchal (Central UP), and Bundelkhand. Similarly, it will set up IT Parks in each of the 18 administrative divisions of the state.

To encourage investors, the government will provide a subsidy of 25 per cent or up to ₹20 crore for setting up IT Parks. Additionally, it will offer up to 100 per cent stamp duty exemption. At the same time, the state will provide a subsidy of 25 per cent or up to ₹100 crore on developing an IT City. The government will also encourage private IT firms to employ local youth to avail of more pecuniary benefits. For example, on employing 30 locals, the state will provide a single-time recruitment assistance of ₹20,000 per student per year to the concerned enterprise.

Besides, the government will assist the students or employees to enhance their working skills in the field of emerging technologies. For online or offline skill development curriculum in select institutions, the government will bear 50 per cent of the course fee, subject to the maximum support of ₹50,000.

Moreover, exemption will be provided to the private IT units employing women, SC/ST students, transgender, and specially-abled people. Such units will be eligible for the employees' provident fund reimbursement. This includes new units as well as units undertaking expansion.

Ahead of the proposed UP Global Investor Summit 2023, the state is amending existing policies to woo the private sector in a host of sectors. While some policies have been amended and promulgated, the rest are in the process of being finalised and cleared by the state Cabinet, a senior official said.

RAJASTHAN

State to hold job fairs in each district

ANIL SHARMA
Jaipur, 21 November

The Rajasthan government has decided to organise job fairs in every district of the state.

Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot said this after seeing the response the state government got in the recent job fairs in Jaipur and Jodhpur.

"I am happy that thousands of youths have got employment. In Jaipur, 3,000 youths have been given offer letters and 10,000 youths have been shortlisted for the next round," Gehlot said in a tweet.

The chief minister said in Jodhpur around 3,500 youths had received offer letters and 9,200 had been shortlisted.

The maximum package offered in these fairs was around ₹18 lakh per annum.

A senior official said the state government, apart from giving jobs in the government sector, was working on creating more employment in the private sector.

"It was due to the policies of the state government that a large number of investors across the country attended the Invest Rajasthan Summit and Memoranda of Understanding of ₹11 trillion were signed," he added.

The summit was held here on October 7 and 8. Approximately 3,000 delegates participated in various conclaves.

The department has also initiated the process of linking Aadhaar of ration card holders.

A target has been set to complete the work by the end of this month. The officials said the state government intended to transform FPS by launching a pilot project of model shops and taking initiatives to provide a common services centre (CSC) through the ration shops. The officials are also exploring the possibilities of selling small LPG cylinders through the shops and had detailed discussions with oil companies.

Besides banking correspondent services through tie-ups with banks, the shops will be allowed to sell other commodities and general store items.

Financial services at ration shops soon

R KRISHNA DAS
Raipur, 21 November

The Chhattisgarh government has decided to set up model fair-price shops (FPS) in each district and encourage owners to act as banking correspondents for providing financial services.

The state has around 12,300 fair-price shops across 33 districts. The state government is, however, encouraging FPS owners to provide a host of services besides acting as a banking correspondent. "The model government fair-price shops will be started in all the districts of Chhattisgarh in a phased manner," the state's food secretary Topeshwar Verma said.

Department officials have been asked to start preparations. The shop will be identified in a district after consultation with the local administration, he added.

Apart from sale of other consumer goods along with ration material, the facility of banking correspondent will also be provided. FPS licence holders will find additional sources of income, Verma said.

Officials of the India Post Payments Bank, telecom department, oil companies and Civil Supplies Corporation have given a detailed presentation to the state officials for providing better facilities to consumers through the FPS.

Based on the suggestions, new services will be implemented in the FPS.
